

TCF – it's in our DNA

- We cover terminal illness right up to the end of a policy.
- We have no standard exclusions.
- We reduce premiums if we make a significant exclusion.
- We don't ask for any more disclosures after underwriting.
- We offer an option in CI cover for temporary disability – unique in the industry.
- We've done research to match and improve on the best CI definitions.
- We use your customer's money to waive their premiums if they over insure.
- We cover accidental death during an application.
